

Welcome to the EnergyConnect eNews November 2025 Edition.

Featured in this issue:

- Extraordinary milestones: 10 million hours worked on EnergyConnect
- World-class substation rises from a paddock
- EnergyConnect a finalist in Sustainability Awards
- Project completes materials deliveries
- Key innovation: drone-assisted stringing technology
- Transgrid once again taking to the skies
- Helping young people explore their futures

Extraordinary milestone: 10 million work hours reached.

Hours dedicated to building Australia's largest transmission line.

Click here for further information

World-class substation takes shape.

Dinawan substation is critical to delivering new renewable power to the national grid.

Click here for further information

EnergyConnect a finalist in Sustainability Awards.

2025 NSW Sustainability Awards led by the Banksia Foundation, has announced EnergyConnect as a finalist in the biodiversity category.

Click here for further information

Project completes materials deliveries.

Final road train carrying conductor drums departing the Deniliquin Laydown.

Click here for further information

Key innovation: drone assisted stringing technology.

Drones were utilised near Wagga Wagga to carry new transmission lines across existing infrustructre.

Click here for further information

Transgrid once again taking to the skies.

Smart Aerial Imagery Processing is used to inspect high-voltage transmission lines across NSW and ACT.

Click here for further information

Helping young people to explore their futures.

Transgrid's team spent a day with students in Deniliquin, hosting a Discovery Day as part of Transgrid's Industry Experience Program in partnership with Regional Industry Education Partnerships.

Click here for further information

Unsubscribe

You are receiving this email because you are a member of our mailing list.

This email was sent by: NSW Electricity Networks Operations Pty Limited - 180 Thomas Street
SYDNEY, NSW, 2000, Australia