

Project update for Sydenham Road, Marrickville

Transgrid is installing a new underground electricity cable from Potts Hill to Alexandria. The Powering Sydney's Future project will help ensure a safe, reliable and affordable energy supply for Sydney's CBD and surrounding areas. You can view a map of the cable route at www.transgrid.com.au/psf.

We wrote to you on 16th November and the 3rd of December to advise about works for Sydenham Road, Neville Street, Centennial Street, and Brereton Avenue. In addition to the scope informed, we will need to carry out works at the intersection Sydenham Road & Centennial Street from 6pm Friday 10 December. Weather and ground conditions permitting the work will take up to 2 weeks to complete.

How work will affect you

- During the weekends right turn movements from Sydenham Road onto Centennial Road will not be permitted. Centennial Road from Centennial Lane to Sydenham Road will be closed in both directions. Residential access will be maintained via Petersham Road or Northcote Road. Please follow the detours as shown on the map overleaf.
- On-street parking will be removed on Centennial Street (north) and Sydenham Road from Neville Street to the entry of Henson Park for the duration of the work.

Remaining work

COVID-19 Safety protocols

The health and safety of our people, customers and the community and ensuring a reliable supply of electricity to NSW and the ACT are our highest priorities during the COVID-19 crisis.

Transgrid and our contractors, as a minimum, adhere to the recommendations of SafeWork NSW along with the advice of other state and federal authorities to effectively manage the risk of COVID-19 to workers and others in the work environment. This involves maintaining effective controls including social distancing, stringent hygiene and specific work planning and access protocols at our work sites.
